Every committee continues to have a disclosure filing obligation until it (1) has paid or transferred all of its debts or obligations, (2) reduced its cash balance to zero, (3) (if a candidate committee, sold or transferred its campaign property. AND (4) filed a final report showing these transactions and a Notice of Dissolution form.

The Notice of Dissolution must be filed within thirty (30) days of the committee's dissolution, with a copy, of the final bank statement attached.

Leftover funds (including, for candidate's committees, receipts from the sale of campaign property) must be distributed according to the statement of intent on the most recent Statement of Organization.
